De-Illustrating the History of the British Empire

Preliminary Perspectives

Edited by Annamaria Motrescu-Mayes, University of Cambridge, UK

Series: Routledge Studies in Cultural History

This book offers a timely and inclusive contribution to the evolving cross-disciplinary scholarship that connects visual studies with British imperial historiography. It introduces scholars and students of British imperial and Commonwealth history to a clearly presented and diversely themed evaluation of several "visual manuscripts" – images of all genres depicting particular events, personalities, social and cultural contexts – that document the development of some of the British imperial and post-colonial visual literacies history.
